Cavalier and DeMuth attend U.S. Department of Education 2005 National Meeting

By Don Cavalier on Monday, November 14, 2005

Don R. Cavalier, University of Minnesota, Crookston Director of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drug Programs and Dr. David DeMuth, Head of the UMC'S Math, Science, and Technology Department and Principal Investigator for the UMC Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs Grant, attended the U.S. Department of Education's 19th Annual National Meeting on Alcohol and Other Drug and Violence Prevention in Higher Education. The meeting "Driving What Works: Evidence-Based Strategies in Prevention" took place October 2-5, 2005 at the Westin Indianapolis in Indianapolis, Indiana.

This was a national conference for examining issues around alcohol, other drugs, and violence (AODV) prevention on college campuses and in their surrounding communities. It included keynote speakers, workshops, skill-building sessions and showcases, town meetings, poster presentations, exhibits, and the National Forum for Senior Administrators. Conference attendees included prevention professionals, college and university presidents, students, faculty, staff, and administrators, community-based health and safety personnel, representatives from state and national organizations concerned with alcohol, drug, and violence issues. Cavalier was the conference registration chairperson and over five hundred attendees participated in the 2005 conference.
